A Message from our President

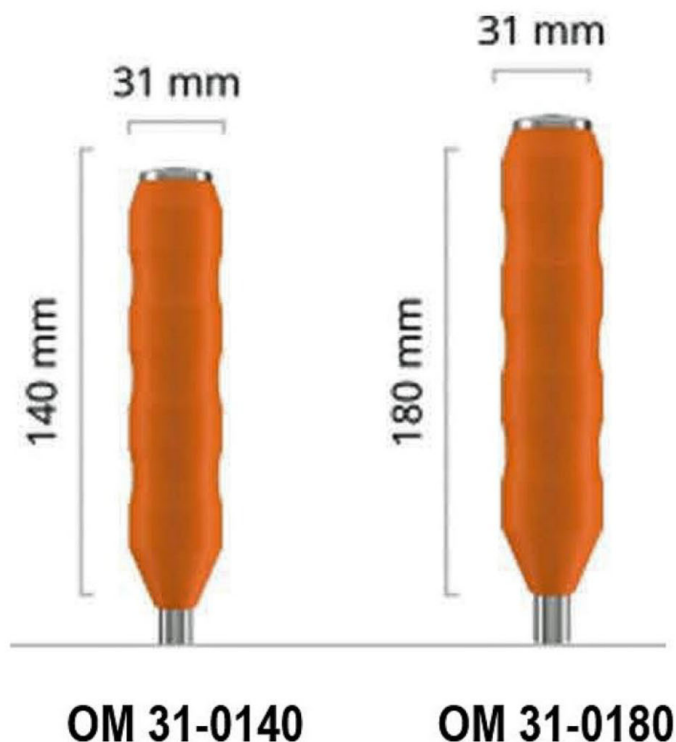

"As the current President and second generation owner of OrthoMed I want to personally promise you that we will continue to offer innovative high quality surgical instruments at the most competitive prices, sourced from the finest manufactures in the world. We pride ourselves on being the Surgical Instrument Specialists and being a complete source for all your instrument needs. We cross reference most instrument companies and can often source the unique and hard to find instruments. We are happy to do the research if you provide us with a cross reference number or picture. We also stock thousands of general and specialty instruments that can be modified to meet your needs."

Ron Dyches
President of OrthoMed Inc.
